

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING/CITY OF FORSYTH/ZONING VARIANCE APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given that the Mayor and Council of the City of Forsyth, at City Council Chambers at Alderman Hall at 5 W. Adams Street in Forsyth at 6:00 PM on the 8th day of September, 2020, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be reached, will conduct a public hearing and consider the application of Pintukumar Patel with regard to a sign variance application on property designated as Monroe County Tax Parcel F26 005, in the City of Forsyth, and located at 119 N. Lee Street. The application for the sign variance seeks to allow a sign on the front of the building facing North Lee Street, and also signage on the columns on the front of the building facing North Lee Street.

The current zoning of the property is Mixed Use, and the zoning shall remain unchanged.

The public hearing will be conducted in accordance with the procedures set out in the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Forsyth including but not limited to Article 31 of the City Zoning Code (Public Hearing Procedures).

This 4th day of August, 2020.

Mayor and Council of the City of Forsyth

Date: August 4, 2020
To: Monroe County Reporter

Please publish the above legal advertisement in the issues of The Reporter of August 19 and 26, 2020 and bill the cost of publication to the City of Forsyth.

C. Robert Melton
Attorney for the City of Forsyth
PO Box 657
Forsyth, GA 31029
478-994-5171

cc: Mrs. Janice Hall (via e-mail)
Forsyth City Manager